

Just a Chat About Mentoring
Lori Wood
IARBC Annual Conference 2020

This page is provided for you to jot down ideas that are helpful to you. Because of the nature of this workshop, there are no fill in the blank or outlines. I've included a few brief ideas from our chat as well as some good resources.

Matt. 28:18-20. What does "go" mean?

Titus 2:3-5

Tim Keller says, "Because the Bible is the Word of our creator, it is our soul's 'owner's manual.' The things it commands are the very things we were created to do."

What does mentoring look like?

How do I know who I should reach out to?

What do I do with my fears of mentoring?

What do I say?

What do I do when I feel like a failure?

What do I do when I'm positive I can't do this?

What do I do when God sends me someone who's very different from me, like a Millennial or Gen X or Gen Zer or worst of all a Boomer?!

What will it cost me?

What can I take away from this today?

Resources:

The Bible--find a version that your friend can understand.

God's Wisdom for Navigating Life, Timothy Keller--developing wisdom

John Study--Hal Miller--great for walking through with unbelievers and new believers

Spiritual Mothering--Susan Hunt

The Gospel Comes with a House Key--Rosaria Butterfield

A Place of Quiet Rest--Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth

Seeking Him--Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth

Spiritual Disciplines for the Christian Life--Donald Whitney